If you selected No, you should complete the FAFSA as soon as possible. You may obtain a FAFSA on the web at www.fafsa.gov. A 2017-2018 FAFSA must be on file at New River Community and Technical College's Financial Aid Office before your summer school application can be considered.

I, _____, understand that in order to receive aid, I must enroll in and complete at least 6 hours during the 2018 summer sessions(s) or I will be responsible for immediate repayment of any Title IV Aid I received anytime during these sessions. I also realize that I cannot receive any additional financial aid; I will not receive grades for summer course work; and I am not eligible for federal or state student aid for future semesters if I owe any repayments. Additionally, I understand that academic transcripts will not be released on my behalf to any other college or university if I owe repayments.
